

Instruction

Secure planning consent for new piece of town centre public art

Client

James Hehir esq. OBE, Chief Executive Ipswich Borough Council

LPP's Role

- Planning advice
- Preparation and submission of planning application including preparation of Design and Access Statement

Project Details

Planning consent was required for the installation of a piece of sculptural artwork commemorating the life and achievements of Prince Alexander Obolensky; a Russian émigré and rugby football legend killed on wartime duty at RAF Martlesham and buried in Ipswich cemetery.

The sculpture is situated in Cromwell Square in Ipswich town centre and was designed and created by the well-known sculptor Harry Gray.